 cine; Second, John M. Nelson, Madison; Third, Arthur W. Koop, Plattville; Fourth, William J. Carey, Milwaukee; Sixth, William H. Froelich, Jackson; Seventh, John Jacob Esch, La Crosse; Eighth, James H. Davidson, Oshkosh; Ninth, Gustav Kustermann, Green Bay; Tenth, Elmer A. Morse, Antigo; Eleventh, Irvine L. Lenroot, Superior.
 The prohibition party nominated a full ticket, headed by Byron Van Keuren, Oshkosh for governor.
 The Social-Democratic chose William A. Jacobs of Racine to head their ticket. Victor Berger was nominated for Congress by the Social-Democratic of the Sixth district.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.
 Concord, N. H., Sept. 6.—An insurgent victory featured New Hampshire's first state-wide primaries today. State Senator Robert F. Bass of Peterborough, defeating Bertram Ellis of Keene for the Republican gubernatorial nomination by a substantial margin.
 In the congressional fight, the insurgents did not fare so well. Congressman Cyrus A. Suloway won by a wide margin in the first district nomination for Congress in the First district, despite the stirring campaign waged by Sherman E. Burroughs of Manchester.
 Despite a heavy rain all day, the Republican vote was surprisingly large. Returns tonight from the primaries in 200 election districts out of 290 in the state in the Republican contest for gubernatorial nomination, gave Bass, insurgent, 14,683; Ellis, regular, 7,553.

NEVADA.
 Reno, Nev., Sept. 6.—At a late hour tonight, with practically but half the vote counted, indications are that an insurgent movement confined to two candidates on the Republican ticket and a factional revolt in the Democratic ticket, represented in nearly every office to be voted for, have alike failed.
 The counting is progressing very slowly, and it is not expected that the result will be known before 3 or 4 a. m. Indications so far are that the following have been nominated on the Democratic ticket:
 For choice for United States senator, Key Pittman; for governor, D. S. Dickerson, incumbent; lieutenant governor, Gilbert C. Rose; attorney general, Cleveland H. Baker; state printer, Joseph Farnsworth; mine inspector, Ed Ryan. Other results still in doubt.
 This ticket was opposed by James G. Sweeney, justice of the supreme court, who aspired to the Senate, and Frank H. Nicholas, seeking the governor's office.

Practically a full ticket opposed to the Democratic administration ticket was placed in the field with success. Charles S. Sprague was nominated for Congress over Robert L. Hubbard, according to late reports.
 On the Republican side, W. A. Massey defeated T. L. Oddie in a close race for governor. Oddie, with George Springmeyer, represented the insurgent sentiment. Springmeyer was defeated by Hugh Brown for the attorney generalship.

NEW MEXICO.
 Albuquerque, N. M., Sept. 6.—Notwithstanding a hard fight put up by the Democrats in nearly every county in the territory, the indications tonight are that the Republicans have elected 64 out of 100 delegates who will meet in convention at Santa Fe on October 3 to adopt a constitution for New Mexico, which later will be submitted to the people for ratification.
 A light vote was cast. Official returns from the various counties were not obtainable for twenty-four hours.

FATAL MISTAKE.
 New York, Sept. 6.—Mistaken for a burglar, Mrs. Louise Geis was shot and killed, early today, in the hallway of her home, by Kurt Weislog, a boarder. The woman's husband, Louis Geis, also was struck in the arm by a bullet fired by Weislog. Weislog was arrested.

CRIPPEN AND LENEVE

Crescent, Camden road, had discovered the presence of large quantities of hyoscin, a colorless liquid poison, and also detected evidence that an operation had been performed.

It had been known that the authorities had been working on the theory that Belle Elmore had been in the hands of one having at least a rude knowledge of surgery, and further that she had been poisoned. The prosecutor spoke of Mrs. Crispin as Belle, the name used by Crispin when referring to his wife. The two, the prosecutor continued, had occupied separate apartments for four years. For last three years, he said, Miss Leneve had been Crispin's mistress. In January Miss Leneve was feeling her position in regard to Crispin and his expressed considerable jealousy of Mrs. Crispin.

Excuses of Crispin.
 In a written statement made to Inspector Dew when the investigation first opened, Crispin said Belle was living in the protection of another man, Crispin's statement and further that she expressed considerable jealousy of Mrs. Crispin.

On returning from business on February 1 Crispin said he found that his wife had gone. He took steps to find her, but she had disappeared. Crispin said he had been threatened by another man, who occupied a better position in life, Crispin's statement and further that she expressed considerable jealousy of Mrs. Crispin.

On January 21, after Paul Martinetti and Mrs. Martinetti, who had spent the evening with the Crispins, had left the house. During the quarrel the doctor said that his wife threatened to return to him on the following day.

FACES MURDER CHARGE AFTER EXONERATION

John A. Jones, charged with murder in the first degree for killing Arthur F. Sheppard at the Wellington hotel, July 19, was arraigned before Judge T. D. Lewis yesterday. He entered a plea of not guilty, and his case will probably be set before Judge Lewis at the setting of criminal cases, September 12.

Jones was exonerated by a coroner's jury on the ground of justifiable homicide, but a complaint was issued by the county attorney the next day.

There is sure to be something of "human interest" in the case—as well as in the news.

WOULD DIVORCE DESERTING SPOUSE

Alpha J. Higgs Fled to Canada With Girl Employee of the Improvement Era.

Mrs. Mary J. Higgs filed suit for divorce, yesterday, against Alpha J. Higgs, charging that her husband deserted her July 9, 1909, leaving his wife and five children without support. Alpha J. Higgs, at the time of his desertion, was general secretary of the Y. M. M. I. A. of the Mormon church, and assistant manager of the Improvement Era, the official organ of the young people's organizations, and he eloped with Miss Bessie Badger, who was employed in the office of the publication. They fled to Canada, and Higgs was cut off from the church a few months ago.

Able to Pay It.
 In her complaint for divorce, Mrs. Higgs asks for $75 a month alimony, payments to date from the time her husband deserted her. Mrs. Higgs also asks custody of their five children, saying that their father is not a fit person to have them and that she wishes to remain with her. The wife says that her husband is able to pay at least $75 a month alimony, and stating that he owns property in lot 5, block 11, of the Salt Lake City survey, she asks that the court issue an order restraining her husband from encumbering or selling the property.

Mr. and Mrs. Higgs were married September 7, 1887. The children are: Norace Higgs, 20 years; Mary M. Higgs, 18 years; Gerald H. Higgs, 16 years; Bryant Higgs, 12 years, and Bryant Higgs, 3 years.

SHIPPERS OUT OF THE RATE HEARING

 The hearing is for the purpose of hearing the protests of the railroad companies against the proposed change, or at least against so sweeping a reduction in all commodities.

Validation Scheme.
 In the morning Commissioner Prouty listened to a varied discussion as to the merits and inconvenience of the validation scheme in vogue among the railroads, in the case of George W. Ritter against the Oregon Short Line, Southern Pacific and Salt Lake route.

Ritter is a mining engineer of Salt Lake, living at the University club, and filed the case against the railroads for the purpose of getting it before the interstate commerce commission and having a ruling in regard to the matter, which has been brought to the attention of many who buy round-trip tickets. Though Ritter has complained of the charges of 50 cents for a round-trip ticket, in addition to the $42 for the round-trip ticket, he is not suing the railroad for this money, but seeks general relief on behalf of the public from the system.

Commissioner Prouty took a keen interest in the validation phase of railroad rates. The contention of Ritter and his attorney, John A. Street, is that the validation of tickets is necessary to escape paying, whereas the railroads are heavy losers, and that something should be charged for this. But they declare the 50 cents should be charged at the office where the tickets are made, thus doing away with the extra charge, and that the validation should be done at the office at the half-way station in the trip, and at a special validating agency separate and apart from the ticket offices. This, it was claimed, would save the railroads the inconvenience of the traveling public, in that it took time and trouble.

Cases were cited where travelers missed trains, and that they were compelled to have their tickets validated before they could have their baggage checked, and that they were forced to both to the validating office and then to the ticket office for Pullman berths.

To Maintain Agencies.
 James H. Hargreaves, Jr., general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific with headquarters at San Francisco, bore the brunt of the attack against the validation scheme. He said the extra charge was made for the maintenance of the many agencies throughout the country, of which 20 are on the Pacific coast, and that it would enter into the cost of the new vaudeville bill at that house, and it is capable presented. Lady Louise Buckley is a direct descendant of Lord Buckley of England, and is a talented, handsome girl. Henry Brothers, in a Chinese musical act, are popular numbers on the bill, and Shirley, violin soloist, has a new act that is excellent.

LUNA, ISIS AND ELITE.
 "Deputy's Loves," at the Luna motion picture house this week is turning out to be one of the most popular of western dramas. The story is carried out along new lines and in a western atmosphere that makes it unusually interesting. At the Luna, "Dora Thorne," a new excellent bill, and at the Elite "Romeo and Juliet," "Ascending Mt. Tamapla," and "Sorrows of the Unfaithful" are among the new subjects.

STATE GETS DECISION
 The old companies, as was the International Harvester company of America.

The whole stock of the New Jersey corporation was transferred to a voting trust of George W. Perkins, Cyrus H. McCormick and Charles Deering, who now have control until 1912. The commission found that these men practically control the mower and binder business and have potential control of other lines of harvesting machinery in the United States.

Soon after the organization of the so-called Harvester combine, the federal government acquired the D. M. Osborne company and operated it ostensibly as an independent concern for two years. Other companies, including the 1902 are the Columbia Corderage company, the Mexican Sinal company, the Illinois Northern Railroad company, the Autman-Miller company, the Minnie company and the Keystone company.

FAMOUS QUARTET TONIGHT.

The concert scheduled for tonight at the Odeon, when Mrs. Marie Rappold, soprano; Margaret Keyes, contralto; Daniel Beddoe, tenor; and Allen Hinkley, basso, appear, promises to be a great treat. The singers arrived yesterday, and all are in excellent trim for tonight. They will hold a rehearsal with Professor J. J. McClellan this morning. Workmen have been working on the Odeon for the past two days to get it into shape for the affair tonight. The sale of tickets has been heavy, yet on the arrangement of seats there will be plenty of choice locations for all comers. Until 6 o'clock tonight seats can be purchased at the Consolidated, Daynes-Ree, Carstensen Music stores and the Graham music bureau, after which all tickets will be taken to the box office at the Odeon. Doors will open at 7:30. The program will commence promptly at 8:30 as follows:

I. Aria, Lend Me Your Aid (Queen of Sheba).....Gounod
 Daniel Beddoe.
 II. Aria, O Don Fante (Don Carlo).....Verdi
 Miss Margaret Keyes.
 III. Schweg, Schweg (Freischutz).....Schweig, Schweg (Freischutz).....von Weber

 The Danza.....Chadwick
 Miss Margaret Keyes.
 Quartet from Rigoletto.....Verdi
 Mesdames Rappold and Keyes, Messrs. Beddoe and Hinkley.

HENRIETTA CROSSMAN.

The success of Henrietta Crossman is a good example of how obstacles may be overcome by the proper use of the human mind. Her career has been a series of triumphs, and she has been a great success in the theatre. Her latest triumph was in "Anti-Matrimony," which was a brilliant comedy by Percy MacKaye, in which she appeared at the Salt Lake theatre for the last time at a matinee today and tonight's performance.

LAST OF "UNTIL ETERNITY."

The last two performances of "Until Eternity" in which Margaret Illington is starring this season, will be given at the Colonial today. Miss Illington's success in this play has been even greater than in "The Thief," the play in which she last acted in Salt Lake. Never has the theatre-going public of Salt Lake seen a play more lavishly mounted.

MUSIC ACT A HIT.

"The Imperial Musicians," a Lasky act which headlines the week's bill at the Orpheum, according to the monthly report of the city board of health for August, the births numbering 237, as compared with 121 deaths. The total number of deaths for the first eight months of 1910 has been 754, as compared with 845 for the corresponding months of 1909. There were 76 cases of typhoid fever reported during August, and of the seven deaths from that disease four were cases of patients who had contracted the disease outside of Salt Lake and had been brought here for treatment.

DAILY REHEARSALS.

Daily rehearsals on the bill for the second week of the Ingersoll Stock company are progressing on the new play, "The Walls of Jericho," and the play bids fair to be even more of a favorite than the first. The houses which have greeted the company at each performance, made up of the standard theatre-goers of the city, and keen appreciation of the company is shown at each performance.

DANIELS THEATRE.

No more important announcement has been made in local theatrical circles since the opening of the Daniels theatre, the news announced Tuesday of the engagement of Ollie Mack, the comedian famous under the team name of Murney and Mack, as the leading comedian of the Curtis Musical Comedy company at the Daniels theatre, where next week he will be seen in one of his own shows, "Shooting the Chutes."

SHUBERT THEATRE.

"The World of Strife," the labor sketch at the Shubert, is proving a hit on the new vaudeville bill at that house, and it is capable presented. Lady Louise Buckley is a direct descendant of Lord Buckley of England, and is a talented, handsome girl. Henry Brothers, in a Chinese musical act, are popular numbers on the bill, and Shirley, violin soloist, has a new act that is excellent.

Ladies' Why Not Preserve Your Youth and Beauty?

Nothing so detracts from the attractiveness of women as dull, faded, lusterless hair.

There is no excuse for this condition nowadays, because notice is hereby given to the readers of The Herald-Republican that Parisian Sage, the quick acting hair restorer, is now on sale in Salt Lake City at the drug stores of Schramm-Johnson, Drugs, and is sold with a rigid guarantee at 50 cents a bottle.

Since its introduction into America, Parisian Sage has had an immense sale, and here are the reasons:
 It is safe and harmless.
 It cures dandruff in two weeks, by killing the dandruff germ.
 It stops falling hair.
 It promptly stops itching of the scalp.
 It makes the hair soft, glossy and luxuriant.
 It gives life and beauty to the hair.
 It is not sticky or greasy.
 It is the daintiest perfumed hair tonic made.

It is the best, the most pleasant and invigorating hair dressing made. Right shy the druggist who offers you a substitute, he is unworthy of your confidence.

Made only in America by Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

the last three being manufacturers of harvesting machinery.

Sales of $200,000,000.
 In 1904, it acquired the Weber Wagon company and patents of the Harvester Axle company, and in 1906 the Kemp company. In the first five years the sales of the company in the United States amounted to nearly $200,000,000.

In Missouri the company does about 30 per cent of all business in agricultural tools, implements, vehicles, machinery; in the binder line, 50 per cent, and in the mower line 75 per cent.

Attorneys for the company contended that the organization was a legitimate transaction in the ordinary course of trade.

The report points out that the company was organized to control the binder and mower business and that the companies that entered the combine manufactured practically nothing except harvesting machinery.

In his conclusion, the commissioner says:
 "I find that the International Harvester company is a combination created for the purpose of restricting trade, lessening competition, regulating, controlling and fixing prices of agricultural implements and machinery sold and offered for sale in Missouri."

Merely a Bind.
 "That the International Harvester company of Missouri is maintained by the New Jersey corporation as a separate corporate entity for the sole purpose of making sales of its products and for that purpose it obtained a license to do business in evasion of the laws which preclude the international harvester company of New Jersey from obtaining a license and by means thereof has secured a practical monopoly in mowers and power to secure a further monopoly in the sale of agricultural tools, implements and machinery in the state."

The respondent, by becoming a member of such a combination, in furthering the purpose thereof by the evasion, has been guilty of a violation of the anti-trust laws and has incurred the penalty of the laws. I fall to find any other substantial basis on which license to do business in the state should be forfeited.

The suit was filed by Governor Hadley when he was attorney general, November 12, 1907. His successor, Attorney General Major, obtained much of the evidence. The action was an information in quo warranto, which asked that all franchises and privileges of the company in Missouri be revoked and that its property be confiscated with $450 for the corresponding months of 1909. There were 76 cases of typhoid fever reported during August, and of the seven deaths from that disease four were cases of patients who had contracted the disease outside of Salt Lake and had been brought here for treatment.

Death claimed nine infants under one month, 23 between one and 12 months and 16 under two years of age died from summer complaint. There were 15 violent deaths and Bright's disease claimed 10 victims during the month.

The report of the food and dairy inspector shows that 241 gallons of over-heated milk were denatured and 150 dozen "nervous" eggs were destroyed.

Not Cute Enough.
 Naturally, people dislike feeling that they are not cute enough in business. But no person who is run down can expect to be at his best.
